

Effective Plantar Fasciitis Exercises

- Quick Reference Guide -

Plantar Fasciitis Exercise Program - Month 1 – Decrease Tension

Exercise Summary

| Picture | Number of Times | Description |
|---|---|---|
| Fascia Stretch  | Perform 3 times a day for 10 repetitions with each being held 10 seconds. | Pulling toes back and stretching plantar fascia. |
| Plantar Fascia Roll Over Foam Roller  | Perform 3 times a day for 10 repetitions. | Rolling foot over full foam roller or 1L soda bottle. |
| Foam Rolling Calf – Toe Up  | Perform 3 times a day. Roll up and down calf twice. | Roll up and down calf, stop at points that are sensitive. When sensitivity subsides, continue on. |

Foam Rolling Hamstring – Toe Up

Perform 3 times a day.
Roll up and down
hamstring, twice.

Roll up and down
hamstring, 2 twice.

Calf Stretch - Natural

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Straight leg behind you
and heel on the ground,
looking for a stretch in
the calf.

Soleus Stretch - Natural

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Back leg is one stride
behind you, bending at
the knees and looking for a light stretch under
the calf.

Calf Stretch with Foam Roller - Double Heel Drop

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Heels off the end of a ½
foam roller or the
bottom step of stairs.
Dropping heels of the edge and looking for a light stretch in the calves.

Soleus Stretch with Foam Roller - Double Heel Drop

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Back leg is ½ a stride
behind you, bending at
the knees and looking
for a light stretch under
the calf.

Knee to the Wall

Perform 3 times a day.
10 repetitions.

Foot against wall and move knee towards wall and then leg back to straight.

Plantar Fasciitis Exercise Program - Month 2 – Decrease Tension

Exercise Summary

| Picture | Number of Times | Description |
|---|---|---|
| Fascia Stretch  | Perform 3 times a day for 10 repetitions with each being held 10 seconds. | Pulling toes back and stretching plantar fascia. |
| Plantar Fascia Roll Over Bottle  | Perform 3 times a day for 10 repetitions. | Rolling foot over 1L soda bottle. |
| Foam Rolling Calf – Toe Out  | Perform 3 times a day. Roll up and down calf twice. | Roll up and down calf, stop at points that are sensitive. When sensitivity subsides, continue on. |

Effective Plantar Fasciitis Exercises – Quick Reference Guide

Foam Rolling Hamstring – Toe Out

Perform 3 times a day.
Roll up calf twice.

Roll up and down
hamstring, 2 twice.

Calf Stretch – Toe Straight

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Straight leg behind you
and heel on the ground,
toe straight ahead,
looking for a stretch in
the calf.

Soleus Stretch – Toe Straight

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Back leg is one stride
behind you, bending at
the knees and looking
for a light stretch under
the calf.

Calf Stretch with Foam Roller - Single Heel Drop

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Heel off the end of a ½
foam roller or the
bottom step of stairs.
Dropping heel off the
edge and looking for a
light stretch in the
calves.

Soleus Stretch with Foam Roller - Single Heel Drop

Perform 3 times a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Back leg is ½ a stride
behind you, bending at
the knees and looking
for a light stretch under
the calf.

Knee to the Wall with ½ Foam Roller

Perform 3 times a day.
10 repetitions.

Foot on a ½ foam roller or a large book and move knee towards wall.

Plantar Fasciitis Exercise Program - Month 3 – Improve Movement

Exercise Summary

| Picture | Number of Times | Description |
|---|--|--|
| Fascia Stretch  | Perform once a day for 10 repetitions with each being held 10 seconds. | Pulling toes back and stretching plantar fascia. |
| Ball Roll  | Perform once a day for 10 repetitions. | Rolling foot over a ball over the fascia. |
| Foam Rolling Calf – Toe Out  | Perform once a day. Roll up and down calf twice. | Roll up calf, stop at points that are sensitive. When sensitivity subsides, continue on. |

Foam Rolling Hamstring – Toe Out

Perform once a day.
Roll up and down
hamstring, twice.

Roll up and down
hamstring, 2 twice.

Calf Stretch – Toe In

Perform once a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Straight leg behind you
and heel on the ground,
toe is in, looking for a stretch in the calf.

Soleus Stretch – Toe In

Perform once a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Back leg is ½ a stride
behind you, bending at
the knees and looking
for a light stretch under
the calf.

Calf Stretch with Foam Roller - Single Heel Drop

Perform once a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Heel off the end of a ½
foam roller or the
bottom step of stairs.
Dropping heel off the
edge and looking for a
light stretch in the
calves.

Soleus Stretch with Foam Roller - Single Heel Drop

Perform once a day.
Hold for 30 seconds and
perform twice

Heel off the end of a ½
foam roller or the
bottom step of stairs.
Dropping heel of the edge, bending at the knee and looking for a light stretch under the calves.

Heels Off Step

Perform once a day. 10
repetitions.

Dropping heel off a step focusing on movement in the ankle.